Fairport Public Library

New Christmas books are arriving daily and here are some of Mrs. B.'s top choices:

Small, Medium and Large by Jane Monroe

This wordless but exquisitely illustrated picture book shows a little girl asking Santa for new friends instead of toys this Christmas. On Christmas morning, she unwraps big boxes containing a pony, a dog and a cat, and what fun they have!

Christmas with the Mousekins: A Story with Crafts, Recipes, Poems and More! by Maggie Smith

Families will love this cozy book! Not only is it a story about a loving family, but it also has many ideas that parents & kids can use to help celebrate the Christmas Season.

Christmas Kitten: Home at Last by Robin Pulver

After delivering all the toys on Christmas Eve, Santa finds a tiny kitten. He can't keep it because he is allergic to cats, but he can't give it away because he has already delivered every gift. What can he do?

Tacky's Christmas by Helen Lester

Tacky the Penguin saves the day when hunters threaten to ruin Christmas.

A Royal Christmas: Four Enchanting Holiday Stories by Lisa Ann Marsoli

If you love Disney princesses, you'll want to read these enchanting stories about Cinderella, Aurora, Tiana and Ariel.

The Spider's Gift: A Ukrainian Christmas Story by Eric A. Kimmel

Katrusya's family is so poor that they cannot celebrate Christmas this year. Even their tree has no ornaments, until spiders help the family out.
